Talents Profile

Scripture says, "Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God." (1 Corinthians 10:31)

This is about more than your spiritual gifts. It means looking at every aspect of who God has created you to be as you consider how He has created you to serve Him.

For a minute, try to set aside any notion of what's spiritual and what's not and simply ask yourself,

"What am I good at?"

"What do I do particularly well?"

"What do I do with confidence?"

Record three things that come to mind:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Availability Profile

Our time is precious and we have many areas in our lives that require a time commitment.

God calls us to devote time to being a husband or wife, a parent, and employee or employer.

He also calls us to set aside time for Him. Part of that is in worship or quiet time spent with Him.

Another part is in serving Him.

The balance we strike will be different for each of us. Some of us will have more, others less, because of our life circumstance.

How we use our time reflects what is important to us.

When it comes to the time I am willing to make available right now for serving, I would consider that I am able to commit ...

no time

about an hour a week

about 2 or 3 hours a week

more than 3 hours a week

Observation Profile

It can be hard to recognize our own talents and abilities. We often don't see in ourselves what others do.

Take a few minutes to talk with two people who you respect and who know you well. Ask them two questions.

"What am I good at?"
